VOTER INFORMATION

Any resident who is a citizen of the United States and is 18 years of age, or who will reach that age prior to the next election, may register to vote. There is no residency requirement in order to vote in New Mexico. Registration closes 28 days before an election takes place.

To register, you may call the County Bureau of Elections to request that a registration form be mailed to you. Or, you may register in person at the County Clerk's office, the Motor Vehicle Division, public library, or any state office providing public assistance to those with disabilities. If your voter registration card does not arrive within 3 weeks, contact the County Clerk. To check your voter information, www.voterview.state.nm.us.

You must re-register to vote if you:

1. Legally change your name by marriage or otherwise
2. Change your residence
3. Change party affiliation

In primary elections, only registered members of major parties may vote for party candidates, and only within their own party. Independents and minor-party members may not vote in a primary election. New Mexico does not allow crossover voting in primary elections.

Primary Elections are held on the first Tuesday in June of even-numbered years and are open to registered members of the major parties. All other elections are open to registered voters regardless of party affiliation.

Early Voting is allowed in New Mexico for three weeks prior to a primary or general election.

Absentee Voting is allowed for all county and state elections upon application to the office of the County Clerk. Absentee ballot applications are available at the County Clerk and through www.sos.state.nm.us. The time to make application to vote by absentee ballot varies from election to election. Contact the County Clerk for further information.

Support the League

The League of Women Voters has two separate and distinct roles.

- Voters Service/Citizen Education: we present unbiased nonpartisan information about elections, the voting process, and issues.
- Action/Advocacy: we are also nonpartisan, but, after study, we use our positions to advocate for or against particular policies in the public interest.

The League of Women Voters Education Fund is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit educational organization which supports the publication of our Voters' Guides and Who's Who, programs on issues supporting our community, candidate forums, and some of our website expenses.

The League of Women Voters, a membership organization, conducts action and advocacy and is a nonprofit 501(c)(4) corporation.

We rely on dues and donations to support our programs. If you would like to help us, please cut out this page, fill it in, and mail it with your check to LWVSFC:
