

EVENTS ANNUAL REPORT, 2022

During the 2021-22 League year, LWVSFC held thirteen events, almost all of which were remote, on Zoom. It was a team effort. Susan Haase, Events Coordinator, and League members recruited speakers on topics of interest. Danis Kelly made all the arrangements for the in-person occasions. Debra Helper and Stephanie Schlanger took charge of the Zoom implementation. Stephanie Schlanger made sure everything was posted on the Calendar and Constant Contacts were sent out for notifying members of events.

Everything kicked off in June with the Program Planning Meeting. Then, in:

September

- Presentation on “The Constitution, Women and True Equality,” by Dr. Maryam Ahranjani, UNM Law School (Zoom)
- Presentation “Power, Access and Representation in America’s Tribal, State, and Federal Sovereigns,” by Professor Elizabeth Reese, Stanford University Law School (Zoom). Thanks to Stephanie Schlanger promoting this on social media, we had attendees from other Leagues as far flung as Maine and Illinois.
- Road trip to Los Alamos for Lunch with LWVofLA colleagues and the Suffrage Exhibit (Library)

October

- Archeological Walk in the Galisteo Basin led by Dr. Sarah Schlanger and Dr. Signa Larralde.

November

- Presentation on Restorative Justice by District Attorney Mary Calrmack-Altwies (Zoom)
- Presentation on Criminal Justice position of LWVCA by Ashley Reveche (Zoom)

December

- Presentation on YUCCA (Youth United for Climate Crisis Action) by Seneca Johnson (Zoom)
- Holiday Luncheon at Pecos Trail Inn Restaurant

January

- Legislative Preview Presentation by Senators Rodriguez, Stefanics and Wirth (Zoom)

February

- Presentation on Reunity Resources by Juliana Ciano (Zoom)

March

- Sunshine Week presentation on “All About CHART” by Valerie Martinez and Jenice Gharib, lead project consultants from Artful Life (Zoom)

April

- Presentation on New Mexicans Against Gun Violence by Miranda Viscoli (Zoom)
- Tour of Folk Art Museum by docent and LWVSFC member, Chris Furlanetto

Respectfully submitted,

Susan Haase, Events Coordinator
